Imperial College London

The 21st Hammersmith Multidisciplinary Endocrine Symposium

Wolfson Conference Centre, Hammersmith Hospital, London
Friday 4th December 2026

- Technology & Endocrine Surgery
  - Robot assisted laparocopic adrenal surgery – Pros & Cons
  - Debate: Transoral thyroid surgery vs conventional surgery
- Mild Primary Hyperparathyroidism
  - Debate: Parathyroidectomy vs Conservative management
- New developments in thyroid cancer
  - Summary of key ATA guidline changes
- State of the art adrenal diagnostics
- Obesity the commonest endocrine disease
- Clinical case presentations & Prize Poster session

Contributors:

Dr James Ahlquist (Southend)
Prof Kristien Boelaert (University of Birmingham)
Prof Jens Bollersev (Oslo, Norway)
Miss Aimee DiMarco (Imperial)
Prof Sadaf Farooqi (University of Cambridge)
Mr Enyi Ofo (St George's Hospital)
Mr David Scott-Coombes (Cardiff)
Dr Florian Wernig (Imperial)

Further information, abstract submission & application form:

https://estore.imperial.ac.uk/product-catalogue/faculty-of-medicine/metabolism-digestion-and-reproduction/multidisciplinary-endocrine-symposium

Organizing Committee:
Prof Fausto Palazzo
Prof Waljit Dhillo
Prof Karim Meeran
Prof Sir Stephen Bloom